

Parkhall Integrated College

Behaviour for Learning Policy

Agreed by Board of Governors: June 2025

To be reviewed: June 2028

Rationale

At Parkhall Integrated College our vision is to provide an inclusive, caring learning environment where we all feel valued and respected and are empowered to reach our full potential. Excellent behaviour is expected at Parkhall Integrated College. All students are expected to be Ready, Respectful and Safe. Positive relationships between all members of our college community are key in promoting a positive behaviour for learning culture.

This Behaviour for Learning Policy seeks to promote the college's values – Achievement, Community, Kindness, Respect and Responsibility - and to reward students displaying these values.

Consultation

The following groups have been consulted in the adoption of this policy:

- Student Voice
- Parents/Guardians
- Staff
- Board of Governors

Purposes

Parkhall Integrated College believes that, in order to facilitate teaching and learning, acceptable behaviour must be demonstrated in all aspects of college life. Our Behaviour for Learning Policy supports our college's vision and values by:

- enabling effective teaching, learning and achievement to take place;
- defining the roles of college staff, students and parents/guardians in promoting positive behaviour;
- fostering self-discipline and self-awareness in students to prepare them to be good citizens;
- promoting mutual respect, respect for others and respect for the college and the property;
- providing guidance on the consistent use of the rewards systems and consequences interventions.

Reasonable and proportionate sanctions will be used where a student's behaviour falls below the standard that is expected, alongside support to prevent recurring misbehaviour.

The college acknowledges that behaviour can sometimes be the result of educational needs, mental health issues, or other needs or vulnerabilities, and will address these needs via an individualised graduated response.

Guidelines

Rights and Responsibilities

At Parkhall Integrated College we recognise that we all have rights and responsibilities. It is important that the key rights and responsibilities identified below are understood and form the basis of our everyday interactions with each other and the wider community. The DENI document – 'Pastoral Care in Colleges' identifies the rights and responsibilities of stakeholders within the college.

Students

Rights	Responsibilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be valued as members of the college community. • get help when they seek it, whether with their work or with bullying or other personal worries, and to have a sympathetic audience for their ideas and concerns. • make mistakes and learn from them. • be treated fairly, consistently and with respect. • be consulted about matters that affect them, and have their views listened to and, as far as is reasonable, acted upon. • be taught in a pleasant, well-managed and safe environment. • work and play within clearly defined and fairly administered codes of conduct. • experience a broad, balanced and suitably differentiated curriculum, and to have any special learning needs identified and met. • develop and extend their interests, talents, and abilities. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • come to college on time, with homework done, and suitably equipped for the lessons in the day ahead. • respect the views, rights and property of others, and behave safely in and out of class. • co-operate in class with the teacher and with their peers. • work as hard as they can in class. • conform to the conventions of good behaviour and abide by college rules. • seek help if they do not understand or are in difficulties.

Staff

Rights	Responsibilities

Parents/guardians

Rights	Responsibilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a safe, well-managed and stimulating environment for their child's education. • reasonable access to the college, and to have their enquiries and concerns dealt with sympathetically and efficiently. • be informed promptly if their child is ill or has an accident, or if the college has concerns about their child. • be well informed about their child's progress and prospects. • be well informed about college rules and procedures. • a broad, balanced and appropriate curriculum for their child. • be involved in key decisions about their child's education. • a suitably resourced college with adequate and well-maintained accommodation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ensure that their child attends college regularly and arrives in good time, with homework done, and suitably equipped for the lessons in the day ahead. • be aware of college rules and procedures, and encourage their child to abide by them: • show interest in their child's classwork and homework, where possible, provide suitable facilities for studying at home. • act as positive role models for their child in their relationship with the college. • attend planned meetings with teachers and support college functions. • provide the college with all the necessary background information about their child, including telling the college promptly about any concerns they have about college, or any significant change in their child's medical needs or home circumstances.

Classrooms for Learning

The classroom is where most of the learning takes place in college, so it must be a safe and orderly environment for every student. A series of learning behaviours have been put forward by students, staff and parents/guardians as being essential for learning to take place. These have been the result of consultation. These learning behaviours are seen as the right of all to an education. If these rights are promoted then students may achieve a number of rewards, however, if students choose to take away the rights of their own or others' education, then they may receive consequences.

Behaviour for Learning principles - Ready, Respectful and Safe

The Code of Conduct summarises the behaviour expected by the college from the students. The Code of Conduct is supported by a rewards system and consequences interventions.

Be Ready – to learn.

- Take pride in your uniform and be well equipped for college.
- Keep focused on learning in the classroom so you can achieve the best you can be.

Be Respectful –of ourselves, each other, and our environment.

- Being kind, helpful and polite in all we do.
- Take responsibility for your own actions and progress.

Be Safe – keep yourself and others safe.

- Move around the college quietly and responsibly and follow the one-way system .
- Contributing positively to our college and local community

Ready	Respectful	Safe
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • College Uniform • Full equipment • Listening • Be on time • Participate and learn 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Listen to others and expect to be listened to • Appropriate language and tone • Look after the building, displays and equipment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be in the right place at the right time • No physical contact • Stay safe online in and out of college • Report any problems to an adult

Behaviour for Learning

Ready

- Take pride in your uniform and be well equipped for school
- Keep focused on learning in the classroom so you can achieve the best you can be

Respectful

- Be kind, helpful and polite in all you do
- Take responsibility for your own actions and progress

Safe

- Move around the school quietly and responsibly and follow the one-way system
- Contribute positively to our college and local community

Rewards

Encouragement, praise and rewards are essential parts of the Behaviour for Learning policy at Parkhall Integrated College.

The college will recognise that praise is key to making students feel valued and ensuring that their work and efforts are celebrated. When giving praise, teachers will ensure:

- They define the behaviour that is being rewarded.
- The praise is given immediately following the desired behaviour.
- The way in which the praise is given is varied.
- Praise is related to effort, rather than only to work produced.
- Perseverance and independence are encouraged.
- Praise is only given when a student's efforts, work or behaviour need to be recognised, rather than continuously without reason.
- The praise given is always sincere and is not followed with immediate criticism.

Whilst it is important to receive praise from teachers, the college understands that peer praise is also effective for creating a positive, fun and supportive environment. Teachers will encourage students to praise one another, and praise another student to the teacher, if they see them modelling good behaviour.

As with praise, the college understands that providing rewards after certain behaviour means that students are more likely to model the same behaviour again. For rewards to be effective, the college recognises that they need to be:

- Immediate – immediately rewarded following good behaviour.
- Consistent – consistently rewarded to maintain the behaviour.
- Achievable – keeping rewards achievable to maintain attention and motivation.
- Fair – making sure all students are fairly rewarded.

Rewards for good behaviour will include, but are not limited to:

- Verbal praise
- Awarding of achievement points
- Communicating praise to parents/guardians
- All staff nominate a 'student of the half-term' and the principal sends a 'Well Done' letter home on this basis.
- Achievements are recognised and celebrated on the college website, noticeboards, assemblies, social networks and the College Awards Evening.
- Reward trips or visits

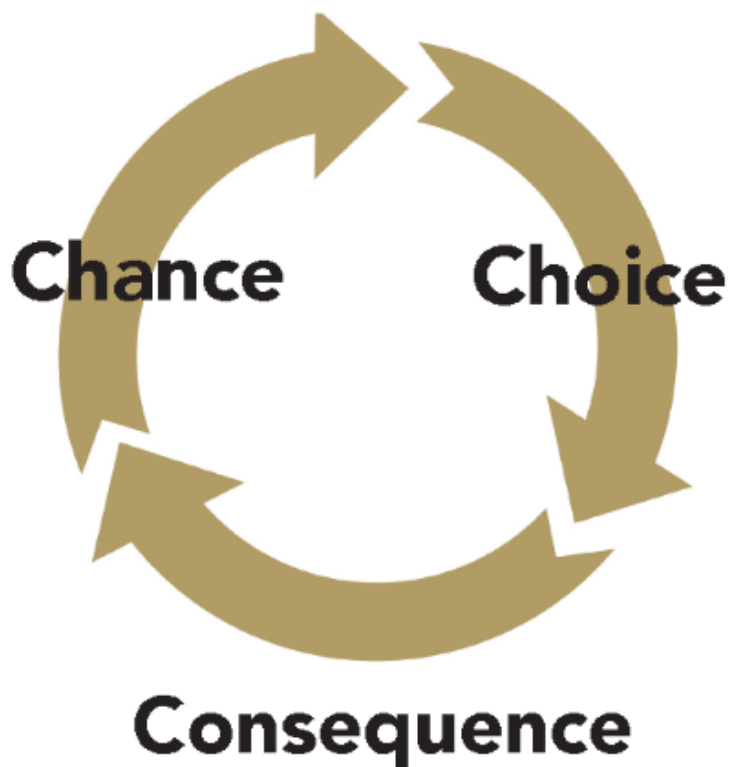

Achievement points are the way by which we recognise students' successes, and the achievement point categories reflect the 5 values of the college - Achievement, Community, Kindness, Respect and Responsibility. Consistency in the awarding of achievement points is essential if the rewards system is to be effective. All students are allocated 100 points at the beginning of the academic year. College staff record achievement using the MIS system at their own discretion. Staff inform the student when they have input a record of their achievement on the MIS system. Achievement points will then be allocated to the student that is consistent with the achievement description according to our college values. Students can then save up and cash in for the reward of their choice at the end of the academic year. The more points students build up, the greater the reward they can get.

Consequences

Students, unfortunately, will not always behave in the way we may wish. We will implement the following actions which are two-fold:

- to set an agreed standard of positive behaviour
- to encourage students to reflect on their inappropriate behaviour and learn strategies to avoid such behaviour

A list of common behaviour types and procedures to be followed can be found on the Behaviour Grid (staff handbook)

Mobile Phones and other Mobile Electronic Devices

We acknowledge that parents/guardians may wish their child to have a mobile phone for use in cases of emergency when travelling to and from college. Students who bring mobile phones to college do so at their own risk. The college accepts no responsibility whatsoever for theft, loss, damage, or health effects (potential or actual) relating to mobile devices. It is the responsibility of parents/guardians and students to ensure mobile devices are properly insured.

The policy for mobile phones and other electronic devices is: Never Seen, Never Heard. Mobile phones must now be turned off during the college day.

Mobile phones and other similar devices have many benefits, but they can be used inappropriately and may be targets for theft, used for cyber bullying, or unfiltered access to the internet.

Students are encouraged to make arrangements with parents/guardians in advance, so that no contact is necessary during the college day. The college office telephone is available for students' use in an emergency and should a parent/guardian need to contact their child, we request that it be done only through the office using the college's telephone number which is 028 9446 8556

Inappropriate conduct

- Mobile devices and other Mobile Electronic Devices are banned from all examinations nationally. Students must hand the device to invigilators before entering the exam hall. Any student found in possession of a mobile device during an examination will have that paper disqualified. Such an incident may result in all other exam papers being disqualified.
- Cyber-bullying is completely unacceptable and will be followed up by the college as serious misbehaviour in line with our Anti-Bullying policy. Using mobile devices to bully and threaten other students is totally unacceptable and will not be tolerated. In some cases, it can constitute criminal behaviour. If the use of technology humiliates, embarrasses, or causes offence it is unacceptable regardless of whether 'consent' was given.

It is forbidden for students to victimise another student and use their mobile device to take videos and pictures of acts to denigrate and humiliate that student and then send the pictures to other students or upload it to a website or social media for public viewing. This also includes using mobile devices to photograph or film any student or member of staff without their consent. If this happens the student will be asked and expected to delete those images immediately and given a suitable punishment. It is a criminal offence to use a mobile device to menace, harass or offend another person and calls. The police can trace text messages and emails.

Medical Exemptions

Medical exemptions will be granted with appropriate documentation and liaison with the relevant member of the Pastoral Care team and SENCO.

Sixth form students are granted the privilege of accessing their mobile phones in the youth wing area of the college, but only during break and lunch times.

First Confiscation: If a student is caught using a mobile phone or any other mobile electronic device, it will be confiscated and kept at reception. The student can collect it at the end of the college day. A Parent App message will be sent to notify the parent/guardian of the confiscation and remind them of the college policy.

Second Confiscation: If this happens again, the device will be confiscated and kept at reception for the student to collect at the end of the college day. A Parent App message will be sent to notify the parent/guardian of the confiscation, remind them of the college policy, and inform them about the C3 detention details.

Third Confiscation: If a third incident occurs, the device will be confiscated and kept at reception. A Parent App message will be sent to notify the parent/guardian of the confiscation, remind them of the college policy, and inform them about the C3 detention details. The parent/guardian will be required to come in and collect the phone.

Fourth Confiscation: If a fourth incident occurs, the device will be confiscated and kept at reception. A Parent App message will be sent to notify the parent/guardian of the confiscation and remind them of the college policy. The parent/guardian will be informed that they must arrange a meeting with a member of the Pastoral Care team.

Refusal to Hand Over Device: If a student refuses to hand the device over to the subject teacher – refer to HoY/HoKS.

Behaviour support for students with SEN

The college recognises its legal duty under the Special Educational Needs and Disability Act (Northern Ireland) 2016 to prevent students with a protected characteristic from being at a disadvantage. Consequently, our approach to unacceptable behaviour may be differentiated to cater to the needs of the student. Those children who commonly demonstrate inappropriate or unacceptable behaviour may be regarded as having a Special Educational Need. These children may be drawn to the attention of the SENCo. The head of year will draw up a plan for each child, in consultation with the SENCo, parents/guardians and any outside agency that may be called upon for advice. The plan will be monitored and reviewed at regular intervals and appropriate further action taken.

Behaviour tracking and analysis

The college will collect data from the following sources:

- Behaviour incident data, including on removal from the classroom
- Attendance, permanent exclusion and suspension data
- Anonymous surveys for staff, students, governors, and other stakeholders on their perceptions and experiences of the college behaviour culture

The data will be monitored and objectively analysed termly by the principal and the SLT. Attempts will be made to identify possible factors contributing to the behaviour, any system problems or inadequacies with existing support.

Monitoring and Review

The principal and relevant members of the Senior Leadership Team will undertake systematic monitoring of the behaviour for learning policy. The principal will conduct regular reviews of the behaviour for learning policy and associated procedures to ensure that they are being implemented effectively, fairly and consistently. The Board of Governors will regularly review behaviour for learning policy and associated procedures, to ensure their continuing appropriateness and effectiveness. The monitoring and reviews of behaviour for learning policy will take place in consultation with key stakeholders. The outcome of reviews will be communicated to key stakeholders with proposals for any changes to the policy and related procedures.

Partnership with Parents/guardians

We encourage and welcome as much contact as possible with parents/guardians and value highly the close links which develop between parents/guardians and teachers. Parent consultation sessions are held throughout the year. On these occasions parents/guardians can talk to individual teachers about their children.

Parents/guardians have the most powerful influence on children's behaviour. Parental encouragement is crucial to the child's progress, development and maturity. Children need parental support to participate fully and positively in their day to day college work. For our college positive behaviour policy to be effective parents/guardians need to co-operate with the college in matters of discipline and reinforce the college's efforts at home. Any concern about the day to day work of the college should be directed first to the Principal.

Where a student for one reason or another is falling short of the accepted standards, the parent/guardian would be seen as a vital element in the remediation process. While the normal supportive structures are used initially, if deemed necessary the parent/guardian would be invited to college and, where appropriate, would be encouraged to co-operate in monitoring the student on a daily basis (i.e., the Behaviour Support Sheet).

A close working relationship between the college, the EWO and other agencies ensures that parents/guardians are supported in particular difficulties as well as in fulfilling their legal obligations.

This policy should be read along with the parent information booklet for parents/guardians and students.

These policy guidelines are translated into action through other policies and procedures, for example:

Rewards System, Pastoral Care Policy, Addressing Bullying in College Policy,

Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy, Teaching and Learning Policy, Assessment Policy

- Students are free to wear a coat when travelling to college, but coats should not be worn inside the college.
- Hoodies or a similar item of clothing are not permitted inside the college.
- Only a minimum amount of jewellery is appropriate with the college uniform: one pair of studs worn in the lower ear lobe only and a wristwatch may be worn. No other visible jewellery or piercings are acceptable.

Personal appearance

- Students should present as smart in their uniforms. The shirt must be tucked in at all times. The tie must be tied correctly with the knot adjacent to the top button and the bottom of the tie level with the waistband.
- The college scarf, specially designed for us, is available from the college office at a cost of £5.
- We would recommend that all items of uniform are clearly labelled for each student, as this way it becomes much easier for the students to locate the uniform items if they are misplaced.
- A note is required on any occasion when a student is unable to wear the complete uniform, as students may be isolated when not wearing the complete uniform.
- Students are not permitted to wear hoodies, jeans or leggings.
- Hairstyles and colour should be in keeping with the general tone and discipline of the college. Unconventional hair styles and colour are not permitted.
- Make-up and nail varnish are not appropriate at college. A light foundation or concealer is permitted in exceptional circumstances.
- Lipstick, eye make up, mascara, false eye lashes, fake tan and nail varnish and false acrylic nails are not permitted.
- Only a minimum amount of jewellery is appropriate with college uniform. A watch is permissible. One set of small
- plain studs in the ear lobes is allowed in the case of pierced ears.
- In the interest of safety, any other form of body piercing (including tongue, nose and eyebrow studs) is strictly forbidden.

Suspension

Staff Procedures for Suspensions

- Parkhall Integrated College takes pride in caring for the pastoral and academic needs of all our students and in nurturing positive home, college relationships.
- Suspensions from college are regarded as an authorised absence. They normally occur as a result of a students' behaviour at college which breaches the college's code of conduct and results in the college taking action in line with their college's behaviour policy.
- In relation to the suspension of a student from college parents should be aware that:
 - A student may be suspended only by the Principal.
 - An initial period of suspension shall not exceed five college days.
 - A student may be suspended from college for not more than forty-five college days in any one college year.
 - The Principal shall not extend a period of suspension except with the prior approval of the Chairperson of the Board of Governors.
 - Each individual extension may not exceed five days but individual extensions may run consecutively.

Action to be taken by college	Actioned by
Once an issue has been investigated by Head of Year it should be brought to the attention of Head of Key Stage or Head of Pastoral Care. to the attention of the relevant Head of Pastoral Care.	HOY
The relevant Head of Key Stage should check the SEND status of the student, and if appropriate, discuss the issue with the SENDCO or AST SENDCOs, noting that there is a statutory duty for all colleges to comply with the Special Education Needs and Disability (NI) Order 2005 (SENDO) in carrying out suspension and expulsion procedures. It is unlawful for a college to discriminate against a disabled student by suspending or expelling him or her for a reason relating to his or her disability (Article 14(3) of SENDO). In this context for students identified with special educational needs or a disability (but not having associated special educational need), their identified disability should not be the underlying reason for a suspension or expulsion, without the college having justification to do so. It is also important to note that disability can be defined as a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities. As such any behavioural issues associated with a disability must be considered.	HOKS/SENDCO
The relevant Head of Key Stage will discuss the issue with the Head of Pastoral Care or Vice Principal	HOKS/HOPC/VP
