St Comgalls Gaelic Athletic Club is a cross community sports organisation based in Antrim, which is focused on the promotion of Gaelic games in the town and surrounding areas.

The club is proud of its family friendly ethos which has grown in recent years to welcome members from a diverse range of backgrounds.

St Comgalls GAC has both male and female gaelic football teams at juvenile and senior levels.
Boys' training for U9, 11, 13, 15 age groups takes place on Mondays from 6pm.
Girls' training for U8, 10, 12, 14 age groups takes place on Tuesdays from 6pm.
Boys' and Girls' training for U7 age group takes place on Sundays at 11:30am.

Matches for U12+ take place (home and away) on Thursdays and Fridays and at weekends for U6-11.

The club always welcomes newcomers of all ages who want to learn how to play gaelic football. Playing Gaelic football is a great way to get fit whilst having a lot fun and making new friends.

St Comgalls is currently looking to recruit girls in the U14 age group for the 2021/22 season.

If you are interested in learning to play Gaelic football, at any age group, please contact either of the coaches below:
